MRS. RAITT FOUND DEAD IN FLAMES

At Her Home Last Friday Afternoon on The East Side Funeral Held Sunday

WAS A PIONEER CITIZEN

Horrible was the death of Mrs. Mary Ann Raitt, who was found dead and wrapped in flames last Friday afternoon at four o'clock. Her daughter, Miss Anna Raitt, who was busy with house hold duties, smelt something burning and ran quickly to her mother's room. Entering the door, she was shocked; at the sight of her mother's body lying on the floor in a mass of flames. She screamed for help and in an instant the flames were extinguished, but her mother was dead. It is thought Mrs. Raitt was dead when she fell to the floor and her clothing caught from the fire in the grate, as one morning last week she fell from her chair unconscious.

Mrs. Raitt was one of the oldest citizens of Cloverport and her age and life was a source of pride to the town. She was eighty-eight years of age. Her birth place was in Meade county and her father, Dr. Sebastian came to Cloverport when there were just four houses here. She had a vivid memory and could re-call stories of the old days with much interest to her friends. For sixty years she furnished the sacrament bread for the Methodist church.

Her husband, Mr. John Raitt, died about twenty-two years ago.

She was greatly loved and hardly a day passed that some one did not think of her happiness, which was always the first thought of her two devoted daughters, Miss Annie Raitt and Miss Josie Raitt. Besides them she is survived by two sons, Messias, Craz, and Nat Raitt, and two sisters, Mrs. A. R. Fisher, of this city, and Mrs. Joe Hensdale, of Portland, Oregon.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from the family residence, conducted by Rev. Mr. Lewis and the interment took place in the Cloverport cemetery. A large crowd of men and women gathered at the home to pay their last loving respects to Mrs. Raitt.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

CHANTECLER PARTY. TOBACCO

A Popular Way To Entertain This Winter--Nice Amusement For Fun Lovers. Has Made Big Crop--More This Year Than Last But Disappointing In Some Respects.

A new way to entertain is to give a Chantecler party, using bunches of wheat, oats, cornstalks and corn for the house decorations. Mrs. James H. Randall, who has been visiting in West Virginia, attended one at Parkersburg, and as it was so unique, she brought home the particulars for her friends. They are as follows: Decorate pretty cards or pieces of paper with hand-painted pictures of turkeys and paste each one to the stem of a feather. On these cards write the following numbered questions:

1. What is Europe's most troublesome fowl?
2. Name largest African fowl?
3. What is America's favorite fowl?
4. What is the most attractive fowl of Mass?
5. Name the best read fowl?
6. What fowl's name is most easily written?
7. What fowls are apt to stray from home?
8. What fowl is most inquisitive?
9. What disagreeable fowl once in habited Cuba?
10. What fowl came near being a hoodoo?
11. What fowl might be given a football coach?
12. What is the most popular fowl with little children?
13. What is the most popular fowl with 16 year old girls?
14. What is the most popular fowl with young men?
15. What is the most popular fowl with the milliners?
16. What fowl gets its picture printed most in the newspapers after a Democratic victory?

Each person is given a feather and must keep the question silent until all are called to stand up in a line. The first person in the line reads his question and answers same, then the others follow in the same way. In case one cannot answer his question, he takes his seat as in an old fashion spelling school and his feather is taken up and given to the next one. At the end, the one holding the most feathers, is given a real chicken as a prize.

If the Cloverport League gives this party, it would be nice to serve fried chicken for a change in refreshments.

New Bethel School Growing.

New Bethel school is far from being a model, it's like the hog that was fed on buttermilk, its growing. Some extra seats have been added. The library has increased and attendance is better. Jobie Jordan and Will Frank have been getting word for the school.

Supr. Driskell visited the school and gave an excellent address on the value of higher education.—J. F. Carville, New Bethel.

Supper a Success.

PHYTHIAN HOME TO HAVE AN EXTEN- SIVE ADDITION

Every Lodge in Kentucky Will Contribute To New Building.
Preparations To Be Completed By
First Of January

CANDIDATES WANTED

The Knights of Pythias of Kentucky are making rapid preparations to build an addition to the present home in Lexington, which will be used as a girls' dormitory and will cost $20,000 or more. The recent grand lodge, in session at Shelbyville, unanimously approved the plan to erect the building and the lodges from all over the state are co-operating in an effort to have the addition completed in 1911.

The plan agreed upon is that each lodge in the state will give the amount secured from the first ten candidates for the Rank of Knighthood to the Grand Lodge for the purpose of erecting the girls' dormitory which is badly needed.

If followed out by all the lodges in Kentucky, the plan will give the order an increase in membership of 2,000, will increase the income of the home, $1,000 annually, and will make the fixed income of the lodges, $10,000 more than at present, besides providing sufficient capital to build the home.

Before the meeting of the Grand Lodge forty or fifty of the lodges had heartily approved the plan, and at the meeting every representative voted for it. Agreements have been sent out by Grand Chancellor R. L. Slade and Grand Keeper of records and Seal J. W. Carter and about sixty lodges have already signed them. An effort will be made to secure the candidates before January first in order that the work may be rushed as rapidly as possible.

At the present time there are thirty girls in the home and more room is needed. The boys have ample accommodations. The work on the new building probably will begin as early in the spring as the weather will permit.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney trouble. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing death of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to drain and seceding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.
When Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and

A Christmas Present

That Means Something.

There is one especially good thing about a Christmas present of The Youth's Companion. It shows that the giver thought enough of you to give you something worth while.

It is easy to choose something costing a great deal more which is absolutely worthless, but to choose a present costing only $1.75 that will provide a long year's entertainment, and the uplifting companionship of the wise and great,

WHY JOHNSON WON LAST TUESDAY.

Nelson county gave him 1,648, the largest Democratic majority ever given in any county in the Fourth District. This was Johnson's home county and it stood by him. When a man can win popularity and confidence among his home folks, it is easy to win the votes of the outside world.

When Johnson was a very young man he served his home county in the lower house of the General Assembly of Kentucky twice, and instead of hiding his political talents, then, he multiplied them and soon he was known as a man who could not only serve his home people in a valuable way, but was a valuable man for the whole public. And this is why he carried every county in the Fourth District last Tuesday. He is awake all the time to the interest of his friends, whether they are Democrats or Republicans.

Even Breckenridge county, which for the last few years has been considered an "Old Reliable" for the Republicans, turned over the log cabin for him by a Democratic majority of 57. This is because Mr. Johnson came into the fields here and gave the people a chance to know him personally and were convinced that he was the man who "knew how" to take care of matters for them in Congress.

In the words of The Elizabethtown Mirror, we say about our next Kentucky Governor the following:

"Mr. Johnson is able, clean and capable, and a most excellent organizer. He possesses a thorough knowledge of human nature, and of men, and we know of no man that excels him in executive ability. He is just such a man as Kentucky needs as Governor, and just such a man as the Democratic party needs to pilot it to victory next year. The nomination should be given him without opposition, as it was when he was a candidate for State Senator, and as it has been each time he has been a candidate for Congress. We have no doubt, however, that with or without opposition, he will win the nomination, and we feel quite sure that in the final election, as usual, VICTORY in large letters will be emblazoned on the standard he bears and the good people of Kentucky will learn to know him and love him, as have the people of his Legislative, Senatorial and Congressional Districts."

THANKSGIVING.

Thanksgiving Day proclamation has been issued by President William Howard Taft. Thursday, November 24, 1910 has been appointed as the day of National thank-giving and prayer, enjoining the people upon that day to meet in their churches and to return heartfelt thanks to Him for all his goodness.

Thanksgiving is a blessed day and should be celebrated in our minds and hearts more than once a year. It is a shame to put gratitude away on the shelf like a glass of raspberry jelly and only hand it out on rare and special occasions. Being grateful is being thankful to those at home as well as to the stranger who favors us. Have you ever noticed that we are quicker to thank everybody else than our own.

He has much to be thankful for who can thank himself, and say: I am thankful no lie has passed my lips this year. I have not cheated my neighbor, have not made a debt that I cannot meet, a minute of my time has not been idly spent and yet I have not worked and worried the life out of my soul and body, my will is not ill towards any man, at night I am glad to rest, and in the morning I can start on the day healthily, cheerfully, with energy and zest. These are things for which to be thankful and are in the reach of every man who sings the song of faith and who can do all things through Christ who strengthens him.

The question is being discussed at Frankfort, we observe from The News, that after all, Caleb Powers may not be permitted to take his seat in the Congress of the United States. The body is the judge of the qualification of its members and can refuse to let Mr. Powers be sworn in on the ground that he was indicted for a felony and never acquitted. The action may never be taken, but it could be with propriety. The House will be largely Democratic and Ollie James at least may object to sitting in a delegation in which a man three times convicted of participation in the assassination of his friend has been chosen by a misguided constituency to sit.—Walton—Lexington Herald.

Fifty young people were confirmed by the Rt. Rev. Dennis O'Donoghue, of Louisville, at the St. Rose Catholic church last Wednesday. Rev. Celestine Brey, the pastor, is quite proud of the class as this is the largest that has been confirmed in the history of the church. It has been many a day since a Protestant church in Cloverport has added to its membership fifty young people at one time.

Our folks look as if we were having a Chantecler play in the News office, so many roosters appeared on the papers in their celebration of the Democratic victory last week, and now turkeys are being pictured by the wholesale for Thanksgiving.

Senator J. J. Watkins died at his home at Sturgis last week. He was one of the most prominent members of the State Senate and made a gallant fight for the county bill, and was publisher of the News Democrat at Sturgis.

"New Cloverport's Meat Market" is the hobo sign painter's way of lettering Cloverport's new meat market. Last year he painted on our door "Breckenridge News, Founded in 1876". There are often mistakes in signs.

Silence is golden. Mr. Roosevelt should have tried it before the election.

STORIES WRITTEN

While The Press Thunders

BY LOUISE

The Rich.

The other day one of our new rich friends said she didn't know what to do, buy an organ or get her teeth plugged.

o o o

Of course, it must be easier for a man to love a rich girl than a poor one, but to show that the girl with money is not always the winner, can be clearly proven by the secret revealed in a chat with a Cloverport man the other day. In speaking of his recent experiences he said that a wealthy young lady, not more than seventy-five miles away, had proposed to him three times in less than four months. With all her money, he couldn't accept her! No wonder.

Friday we had a letter from a man who in an instant was completely captivated with a multi-millionaire's daughter and had a flattering chance to play court to her. He was ambitious to do so, but upon seeing her at the dinner table at a fashionable restaurant, he lost interest. She chewed the chicken with her mouth open.

BIG DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE.

Elections held throughout the country on Tuesday, Nov. 8, resulted in a political convulsion of far-reaching extent similar in many points to the tidal wave of 1882.

The National House of Representatives has been carried by the Democrats, reversing the present Republican majority of 43.

The U. S. Senate will probably be Republican by reduced majorities.

In New York State John H. Dix, Democrat, is elected Governor over H. L. Stimson, Republican, by a plurality of 55,000, reversing a Republican plurality of 70,000 for Gov. Hughes in 1908.

In New Jersey Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, defeated V. M. Wilson, Republican, for Governor, by about 15,000 plurality.

In Massachusetts Eugene N. Foss, Democrat, defeats Gov. Draper, Republican, for Governor, by about 30,000 plurality.

In Connecticut Judge Simon H. Baldwin, Democrat, is elected Governor over Charles H. Goodwin, Republican, by about 4,000 plurality.

In Ohio Gov. Judson Harmon, Democrat, seems to have been re-elected by about 15,000 over his Republican opponent, Warren G. Harding.

New Hampshire and Pennsylvania seem to be Republican, while Rhode Island seems to have re-elected Gov. Pothier, Republican, by reduced pluralities.

In Tennessee, Rob Taylor, Democrat, is defeated by Hooper, the fusion candidate for Governor, by about 15,000.

In Iowa the vote for Governor is close with chances in favor of the Democrats, while Wisconsin and Michigan seem to be Republican by reduced majorities.

Indications are that Indiana is also safely Democratic.

HUMBLENESS OF SPIRIT.

By Ella Hulsebosch Elwaner.

There are many, many people in the world who seem to think that Humbleness of Spirit is a vice, and something to be shunned as one would a viper. Humbleness of Spirit has often been mistaken for cravenness.

Persons with whom these unassuming people associate rarely recognize their superiority and are pleased to laugh at their modest and accommodating ways. "Oh, it's only Tom," they say, "he's a pretty good sort of a fellow, but he hasn't enough spirit!"

They are as incapable of having the fine, gentlemanly manner of Thomas explained to them as they are incapable of reaching up to him in his natural nobility.

If one is deferential, kindly and quick to do a favor for a friend, he is marked as a "soft thing."

Yet, when one discovers a person with true Humbleness of Spirit—one who would as soon sever his right arm as insult another by word thought or deed—do not mistake his position. It would be a difficult thing for such a person to readily recognize insults. He usually takes it for granted that you are as far above such as he.

It is not so common a specie that it is hard to recognize. It places its mark upon the blessed possessor. It shines frequently under a face of tan and makes a face begrimed luminous with feeling.

Do not make light of the fact that he will not resent your brutality or your contumaciousness or your impositions. He is so far above such petty vices that he sees them not; and if he did, why a heart so sweetened with the presence of his Lord would not for an instant harbor hatred toward you for it.

When you meet it, take off your hat—you are passing kinship of the Master.—The Widow.

Mushroom Hats For

The Children.

The small hat of close, round, mushroom shape—like an inverted bowl—comes in felt, velvet, and occasionally is covered with corduroy. Ribbons rosettes make the most effective trimming for such hats. The little mushroom beaver is very smart for children's wear. The trimming is usually of velvet or satin ribbon forming a band around the crown and finished with loop ends. Dresses for children are very picturesque this season in the Scotch plaids, often with the addition of wide collars and sashes. White lace collars are much worn on coats.—The New Idea Woman's Magazine for December.

TEXAS TO LOSE SLICE OF LAND?

New Mexico Claims 600,000 Acres Are Missing.

OLD SURVEY BLAMED FOR LOSS

Constitutional Convention of Embryon State Willing to Drop Fight For Disputed Territory if El Paso County Is Given in Exchange—Argument an Old One With Increased Bitterness.

Border squabbling the initiative and adopting the referendum in such a manner that it will not be objectionable even to its enemies the New Mexico constitutional convention has so far succeeded only in stirring up the people of Texas over the boundary question and debating a lot of other matters that may or may not go into the constitution.

The boundary matter is the biggest thing yet disposed of by the convention. It is a matter which the New Mexico cannot settle and which the constitution cannot settle, but the New Mexicans are going to stand pat and make the fight.

So far as the records show the congress of the United States settled at one time upon the one hundred and third meridian as the boundary between Texas and New Mexico, and the records further show that the Texas legislature officially confirmed this and that the United States paid the state of Texas $10,000,000 to relinquish all claim of any territory west of the one hundred and third meridian. At that time Texas claimed most of New Mexico and a considerable part of Colorado, territory that had been ceded to Texas by Mexico when Texas won her independence and established herself as a republic.

Survey Called Wrong.
The present trouble arose over the Clark survey, which placed the meridian where the present boundary line between Texas and New Mexico is shown on all the maps. This was popularly recognized as the boundary, but it was never officially so declared by congress, and therefore, according to the New Mexicans, it is not legal. All the official evidence there is as to the boundary, they declare, is that it is fixed at the one hundred and third meridian.

In attempting to draw the line for this meridian they, they contend, started in the wrong place and, owing to a defective knowledge of conditions of the atmosphere and their effect upon the magnetic needle, he gradually worked to the west and in doing so kept cutting territory from New Mexico and adding it to Texas. He started wrong in the first place, having estimated his time from Washington instead of Greenwich. He began about half a mile too far over into New Mexico, and he had worked about three miles too far by the time he quit the survey.

At first when the boundary issue was suggested a compromise by allowing Texas to retain the 600,000 acres of land in the disputed zone if Texas would relinquish El Paso county to Mexico. But recently the New Mexicans thought they ought to have compensation for the taxes and license fees which Texas has been collecting from the people in the disputed strip. So the proposition has now been brought forward that Texas surrender the territory in dispute and relinquish the western end of the state and in return the "wrongful use and application of money collected from land belonging to New Mexico."

Think El Paso Is Willing.
The New Mexicans cite the threat of El Paso's representative in the state legislature to cut loose from the rest of Texas if better treatment was not given the western end of the state and declare that the proposed trade ought to be satisfactory to both the people of El Paso and the entire state.

The interests of El Paso's people are in fact more closely allied with those of New Mexico than with Texas, inasmuch as El Paso is 700 miles from the state capital and at least 300 miles from any city of importance in Texas, while it is not that distance across the entire territory of New Mexico and only about 300 miles to Santa Fe. New Mexicans would be glad to acquire El Paso county because of its riches. The assessed valuations in the county are over $25,000,000, about half as much as the territory of New Mexico is worth. El Paso is Democratic, and the county's inclusion in the new state might make it of that complexion politically.

Buys Dr. Newsum's Office.

Miss Evelyn Hicks has bought the lot and building belonging to the Newsum estate on Main street. Miss Hicks will improve the place and make a pretty military park of it next spring. Fifty-eight years the late Dr. Newsum had his office on this street and owned several lots and buildings there before the fire.

ONLY ONE NAME; HE'S JUST TIFT

Embarrassing Sometimes, but Owner Is Satisfied.

PARENTS CAUSED OMISSION.

Left Choice of Superfluous Cognomen to Son, Who Let It Go at That—Election Judges and Bank Clarke Obsolete at First, and Clarke Always, but He's Still Tift, Nothing Else.

TIFT, that's his full name—not John J. Tift nor Horatio Q. Tift nor Peter X. Tift nor yet Magnus Tift—just Tift—just Tift. If you don't believe it you are at perfect liberty to go down to the New York Produce Exchange, ask the starter how you get to the office in the tower and come face to face with a sign which reads:

Box 30000 A. H. TIFT.

For twenty-five years the general public has been unconquered with the fact that there is a person in New York who owns no initials, first name or addendum to his name. In the recent rule of England it was not uncommon to see official statements emanating from Buckingham palace signed "Knohly"—pronounced "Notes"—but not because he didn't care to be antepastoral syllable. It was attributable to the European custom.

"It happened this way," said Tift, "my father thought that, perhaps, I wouldn't like the name that he gave me, my mother thought that perhaps I wouldn't like the name she gave me, and they decided to leave it to me until I got old enough to choose one for myself.

Always Merely TIFT.

"Well, I was alone, and I found that I was not exactly endowed as other persons. The boys at school wanted to know what my name was, and I told them TIFT. If they wanted to know anything about my first name I told them TIFT. That was all there was to it, and so what do you suppose they called me? You guessed right the first time—TIFT—just that and nothing more."

And so his childhood passed. Once in a while some over-enthusiastic companion would know just why it was that there was no first name, and after awhile Mr. TIFT began knowing by his-splendid power. But as a rule, there were few queries. Such things spread.

And then it came to the time when he would have to vote. He and his father, who was one of the original members of the shock firm, went to the family counsel and asked him what about it. The lawyer looked up everything that had happened in that line since the common law was written and discovered that the only case of a one-named man was a single case in Boston.

That person seemed to be able to struggle along without much trouble and without anything like police interference, and so Mr. TIFT thought he would risk it. He lives in Brooklyn, and he found that in his town—as it then was—and in New York there were only four or five TIFTS, and all of them were cousins, and he didn't think they would do anything disagreeable about it.

Votes That Way Too.

The first time TIFT went to vote the inspectors of election wanted to know what about it. He told them that it was just TIFT, and there wasn't any use in arguing. It got by.

Pretty soon TIFT got far enough along in the world to start a bank account. The receiving teller took a good look at him when he shot through a sample of his signature and wanted to know why he was so stingy with the ink. But by the time a couple of checks had come home without a murmur the teller allowed that it must be all right. And right at this minute TIFT has two bank accounts, both of which he opened with the one word TIFT.

Now there are two young TIFTS, and the odd part of it is that both of them have perfectly good front names. The idea of a junior TIFT or of a TIFT 2d didn't look good to him, and besides, it didn't look good to Mrs. TIFT, which is more important.

He it said for those who haven't a dictionary handy that shocks, painted on TIFT's door, are the parts of a box, its sides and its top and bottom, before it is assembled.

Help Wanted by Epicure.

In a paper published in St. Germain, France, there recently appeared this advertisement: "Gentlemen, single, great lover of calf's head, but unable to obtain less than a wife and one, which it is impossible for him to consume by himself, desires to find one or more associates who would share a calf's head with him three times a week."

MANY MEN WANT TO SPEND.

Kansas Anti-Tightwad Club Members Offered Marriage.

The success of the Anti-Tightwad club, organized by twenty-two girls of Sylvia, Kan., may cause the organization's discomfiture. Because of the notoriety given to the members and the large number of letters received by them the parents of some have demanded that they resign, and two of the members already have left the organization.

The members of the club have pledged themselves to go with no young men except those who were liberal with their money. Within the last few weeks more than a hundred letters have been received by the young women.

Miss Pearl Draper received forty letters, among which is one from a young man in Kansas City proposing marriage. This writer says he approves of the organization and also tells the president he has sufficient income to live up to her law as to what a man should spend.

One Kansas City man wrote a letter to every member, but only one man summoned courage to disapprove of the action of the club. Five of the letters were from New York city, one from Trenton, N. J., and one from Galveston, Tex.

Twenty-five young men signed their names to the rules of the Tightwad club of Manhattan, Kan., which were sent to Miss Draper, and a letter from a girls' club of Kansas City declared that a similar organization had been formed there a short time ago.

CORRESPOND ON FREIGHT CAR

Clerks Have New Reciprocal Scheme For Postcards.

Some of the clerks employed in a big manufacturing office on the lower end of Staten Island, New York, have instituted a new fad—that of correspondence by freight car. Upon the sides of cars that come into the yard of the company—and almost every railroad in the country is represented by the yards on the company's clerks write their names and addresses.

Not long after one string of ears heard the yards picture postcards begin to come in from small towns all over the country and even in Canada addressed to those whose names were scribbled in chalk on the sides of the cars. The Staten Island clerks in turn send postcards to every address they find on the freight cars, and so the endless chain lengthens.

How Sick?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? We can furnish positive proof that it has made many remarkable cures after all other means had failed.

Women who are suffering with some form of female illness should consider this.

As such evidence read these two unsolicited testimonial letters. We guarantee they are genuine and honest statements of facts.

Cresson, Pa.—"Five years ago I had a bad fall, and hurt myself inwardly. I was under a doctor's care for nine weeks and when I stopped I grew worse again. I sent for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, took it as directed, and now I am a stout, hearty woman."—Mrs. Ella E. Alkey, Cresson, Pa.

Baird, Wash.—"A year ago I was sick with kidney and bladder troubles and female weakness. The doctors gave me up. All they could do was to just let me go as easily as possible. I was advised by friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. I am completely cured of my illness, and I am nearly sixty years old."—Mrs. Sarah Leighton, Baird, Wash.

Evidence like the above is abundant showing that the derangements of the female organism which breed all kinds of miserable feelings and which ordinary practice does not cure, are the very disorders that give way to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are afflicted with similar troubles, after reading two such letters as the above, should be encouraged to try this wonderfully helpful remedy.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has thousands of health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

BUILDING OF GOOD ROADS

Suggestions For the Treatment of Rural Highways.

NO PATCHWORK WHATSOEVER

The Work to Be Done in Sections—A Mile Should Be Carefully Finished in Its Entirety—How the Roadway Ought to Be Cared For.

How good roads should be made and how they should be cared for is tersely described in the Iowa Homestead by an enthusiast, who says:

In the first place, there should be no patchwork roadmaking having for its object only to make one particular spot passable. Road work should be done in sections. For instance, a mile of road should be taken and completed in its entirety. Every inch of it should be made a good and safe road. I venture the assertion that not more than one mile of road in every ten is safe or free from some dangerous trap to cause trouble to careless drivers or those not given to close observation of the roadways. They should be made so that a child might safely drive over them.

Beginning, I would establish a reasonable grade so that no steep hills remain when the work is finished. I would make over the entire width of the road from fence to fence. I would make the actual roadway of usual width, with only one side of the center to shed rain. From the gutter at the side of this roadway I would make a smooth and even grade to the fence line. Then I would compel the property owners along the road to keep the roadside well set in grass and to mow and care for it just as they do their meadows. No deep, unsightly and dangerous gullies would be permitted, and the man who scraped a lot of grass, weeds, clods and trash into the center of the road should at once be condemned to penal servitude for life. Capital punishment would be too good for the one who scoured his pigs in the road.

The road worker who plowed up a stretch of road late in the fall and left it to melt up until spring should be banished to roadside Siberia. A plow has no place in any road that has once been properly made. The care of a road made according to my plan would be only that of mowing over it occasionally with a drag. The occasion for the use of the drag, however, should be for it just as they do their meadows. No deep, unsightly and dangerous gullies would be permitted, and the man who scraped a lot of grass, weeds, clods and trash into the center of the road should at once be condemned to penal servitude for life. Capital punishment would be too good for the one who scoured his pigs in the road.

I would build a complete and effective drainage system to take care of the water that finds its way to the road and a gutter-work system planned by a drainage engineer who knew how.

I would make cutovers and bridges the width of the road. No small cutovers should be built. They invariably fill up and remain a damage. A good, big concrete bridge is the safest and cheapest that can be made.

Fortunately, Mr. Tenyson learned of the incident before the eminent inheritance of the prize ring got to it.

EVERY FARMER

As well as every business man should have a bank account.

WHY?

Because: Your money is safer in the bank than anywhere else. Paying your bills by check is the simplest and most convenient method. Your check becomes a voucher for the debt it pays. It gives you a better standing with business men. Money in the bank strengthens your credit. A bank account teaches, helps and encourages you to save. This bank does all the bookkeeping. Your bank book is a record of your business.

To those desiring Banking Connections with an Old Established Bank, we extend our services

DOUBT DISAPPEARS

No One In Cloverport Who Has A Bad Back Can Ignore This Double Proof.

Does your back ever ache? Have you suspected your kidneys? Backache is kidney ache. With it comes dizziness, sleepless nights, tired, dull days, distressing urinary disorders. Cure the kidneys to cure it all. Doan's Kidney Pills bring quick relief. Bring thorough, lasting cures. That's what Cloverport sufferers want. Profit then by another's testimony. Twelve-fold and well confirmed.

G. W. Waddell, M. D., Main & Cross streets, Elizabethtown, Ky., says: "I publicly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago, knowing of many cases where they had been used with the best possible results and my confidence in them during the past four years has not been shaken in the least. It may seem rather out of the ordinary for a practicing physician to recommend a proprietary medicine and I must say that there are only a few remedies that are worthy of praise. I have prescribed Doan's Kidney Pills very often and know of many permanent cures that have resulted from their use. I do not hesitate to advise persons who suffer from kidney complaint in any of its various forms to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Teachers Association that was held here Saturday, Nov. 5, from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. on the above date, was of intense interest. It was well attended by the teachers, patrons and students. The topics that were assigned to each teacher were discussed with force and accuracy.

Supt. Driskell was present and opened every avenue that seemed to be obstructed. At night there was an Educational Meeting held at the church and at 8 p. m. every seat was filled. The audience was almost moved by two songs that were sung by the student body, after which there were two able addresses delivered by Prof. E. W. Beard, of Hardinsburg, and Prof. R. H. C. Mitchell, of Brandenburg. What was said and done at those two sessions will cause us to strive after higher ideals.
